

YOUR INANNA CHARMS

Inanna is a generous goddess – call upon her for love, courage and confidence. For a few simple offerings, she will instil her magical qualities in you.

FEAST OF INANNA

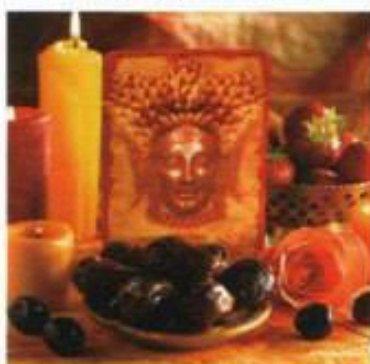

Inanna's dates are a symbol of her fertility and role as the goddess of love. If you wish to enjoy a feast in her honour, prepare a light, candlelit meal for you and your partner (or potential partner!).

Before the meal say a prayer to Inanna and ask her to bless the feast. You could use the prayer to Inanna provided on your Love Goddess card.

Now prepare yourself for an evening of romance and remember to be careful what you wish for when calling upon Inanna's power – she has a tendency to answer and send aid exactly as she sees fit!

You can use your Inanna Love Goddess card to call upon this deity.

CONFIDENCE CHARM

If you want to develop your confidence and communication skills, make a lapis lazuli talisman of Inanna.

On a Wednesday during the waxing Moon, take a lapis lazuli necklace (or a string of blue beads) and say, "Inanna bless this lapis with the 'me' of forthright speech, Inanna bless this lapis with the art of adorning words, Inanna bless this lapis with the 'me' of making of decisions".

As you say these lines, move your fingers along the beads of the necklace one at a time, starting at the clasp. Repeat the words until you are back at the clasp. Imagine the necklace glowing with blue energy to stimulate your confidence.

Ask Inanna to bestow the 'me', her virtues, upon you.

INANNA'S STAR

The eight-rayed star of Inanna is also known as one of the major symbols of the ancient world. It embodies the qualities of Inanna as goddess of love and war, fertility and wisdom, and rebirth.

On a Friday during the waxing Moon make a magic charm incorporating the eight-rayed star. You can draw the symbol in green on a piece of paper or engrave it onto a piece of copper, or paint it in gold on a piece of lapis lazuli.

As you do so say this incantation – "Inanna, you look in sweet wonder from heaven, Lady of the Morning you are radiant, I sing your praises Holy Inanna, and ask for your blessings on this charm".

Draw an image of an eight-rayed star to embody Inanna's power.

SACRED LION SPELL

The images of Inanna with her feet on lions demonstrated her control of her passionate nature and courage, embodied by these fierce animals.

To ensure you have the courage to achieve your goals, perform a candle spell to Inanna. Light a golden candle on a Tuesday on the waxing Moon and call to Inanna for help (using the Love Goddess prayer as before).

You may find this lion spell useful if you need to curb your passion for chocolate!

Visualise the queen of heaven standing on a golden lion, her right hand also bearing a candle. Imagine that she passes her candle to you and as you hold this, feel her courage and power infusing you. Notice your courage and inner resolve start to strengthen as you are filled with leonine power.
